

This administration has represented a position of support for the rights of states to govern themselves. The proposed undermining of NJ Do Not Call Law violates this very right of states to determine their own quality of life. It is a further pandering to those who pay to play.